Describe the interpretive request

In speaking with Rutgers University Men's Golf and the GCAA, we are seeking interpretative support regarding NCAA Bylaw 13.15.1. The language in the legislation restricts institutions from directly and indirectly financing educational expenses (e.g. scholarships) for PSAs. Recent interpretations have been issued permitting institutions to donate to bona fide youth organizations which may be comprised of PSAS provided there is no earmarking for PSAs. The Folds of Honor (<http://www.foldsofhonor.org/>) is a nonprofit organization which raises funds for scholarships and other assistance for spouses and children of soldiers killed or disabled in service for the United States of America. There is an extensive application process and there is no earmarking of funds. The institutions who raise funds whether it be through auctions or direct contributions will have no involvement in selecting the awarding recipients. All funds raised are managed and distributed by The Folds of Honor Foundation. Since the foundation provides funding for high school individuals, the question raised was whether NCAA Bylaw 13.15.1 applies in this instance. Or, would The Folds of Honor Foundation fall in the same interpretative context as the 12/20/12 Staff Interpretation and RSRO Interp request case#495865?
